

I feel that no one corporation should be able to monopolize Radio, Television and a Newspaper. That is too much power for anyone to have, and the public should have a say in what is happening. The public knows nothing about what is happening and how close the vote is.